Brief Details.

On 14/12/2018 at about 1447hrs, I was travelling on the extreme right lane of a three lane road along Telok Blangah Road towards Harbourfront. Just before the slip road to MCE, one BMW car on the middle lane suddenly filter right to my lane and knocked onto my car. The driver then continue driving off till the traffic junction and only when as it was red light. I then managed to catch up to him and asked him why did he hit my car and he informed that he thought I was going up the slip road towards MCE and he apologized. I then told the driver to stop and check for damages however he then drove off when the traffic light turned green. I then decided not to give chase as my three year old daughter was in the car. The driver of the BMW is a male Chinese believed to be in his 50s. I wish to state that there are scratches at both the front and rear left doors. I also wish to state that no one was injured. I tried to gestured him several times to stop however he just continue to drive off each time.
