Dear Sir,

We act for Ms June Yeap Lay Leng who has handed us a copy of your letter of 18 December 2018.

We are instructed that our client had not reported the accident as the damage to motor vehicle no. SLP 2423Z was very minor and the driver of the said vehicle had offered our client an option of a private settlement when she had an estimate of the costs of repair. However, our client did not admit liability.

We are further instructed that the driver of our client's vehicle at the material time is presently outstation and will only return to Singapore after 21 January 2019. He will then provide you with his statement, photographs and video footage of the accident. Our interim instructions are that the two vehicles had stopped at a slip road from Adam Road turning into Dunearn Road, just outside Adam Road Food Centre. Upon checking that there were no vehicles on the right, our client's driver moved forward slowly. However, the driver of motor vehicle no. SLP 2423Z for reasons best known to herself and it seems that she was on her mobile phone, failed / neglected to move despite the road being clear.

As stated above, when our client's driver returned to Singapore, we will provide you with his statement, photographs and video footage.

Kindly direct all future correspondence to us.

Best regards,
Charles Lin
