CONTINUATION OF REPORT

Brief Details.

On 17/12/2018 at about 2235hrs, I my vehicle (SJX3264R) was stationary behind a motorcycle (FBC9918D) while waiting for the traffic lights at the junction of Tampines Avenue 3 and Tampines St 81 to change. While waiting, the motorcycle ahead of my vehicle moved and as such, I moved forward thinking that the motorcycle had started to move off. However, motorcycle then remained stationary and the front portion of my vehicle then hit against the rear portion of the vehicle.

I then alighted to make a check on the motorcycle and the motorcyclist and at that time, no one appeared to be injured. There also appeared to be no damage to the motorcycle. The front registration plate of my vehicle became dislodged after the impact. However, it could still be reattached and there was no other damage to my vehicle.

After exchanging our contact information, we both left the scene.

On 18/12/2018, the motorcyclist called me and informed that he had taken 3 days medical leave as a result of the accident, and that he wishes for compensation. However, we then agreed to report the accident to the police.
