Brief Details.

On 20/12/2018 at about 1005hrs, I was diving my car White Nissan Sylphy SKP4731H along CTE towards City, before Avenue 1 exit on lane 1. The traffic was getting heavy and vehicles were slowing down. As I slowed down, I felt a hitting impact coming from the rear of my car. I stopped my car and came out to make a check. I discovered that a Grey Honda Civic bearing JNB5121 had hit onto the rear of my car. Both my car's rear portion suffered serious damages and the other car's front portion suffered slight damages. No one was injured, I then exchanged particulars with the other driver and left.

On the same day at about 1100hrs, I felt some pain at my back. I then went to Raffles Medical to visit a doctor and had 2 days of MC.
