Dear Vic,

At the time of loss, the record from LTA search proofed the insurance coverage was by AIG.
Do note that your insured is still the legal owner of the vehicle at the time of loss.
The attached showed documents only proof that your insured had authorised Car Empire to drive the vehicle.
We have every rights to claim directly against your insured and his authorised driver.
Shall there be any counter claim against any other insurer, please get your principle AIG to redirect their counterclaim.
Kindly refer to our email dated 31/10/2019 for queries on some damaged items if we are proceeding with a direct settlement with LKK Auto. Otherwise we shall handover the case to a lawyer to proceed with our claims against AIG directly without further reference to you.

Thank you.

Best regards,
Ms. Lee

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Dear Dylan,

We refer to the subject.

Our principal M/s AIG confirmed with insured that vehicle SLQ 1291M was under consignment with M/s Car Empire Automobiles Pte Ltd ("Car Empire") for selling of vehicles.

Also at point of accident, M/s AIG also confirmed that driver was Mr. Tan Xin Fa, who was an employee of Car Empire.

For insurance policy of SLQ 1291M, there is no policy coverage for Motor Trade activity.

As such, please be informed that you need to redirect your claim to the Motor Trade insurer of Car Empire.

Kindly advise if you are to purchase our survey report.

Thank You.
