Dear Ms Lee,

We refer further to our below email.

Our principal had further reviewed on the matter.

Unfortunately, the policy does not cover for this accident that occurred during the engagement of Motor Trade activity.

As such, kindly redirect your claim towards the motor trade policy insurer (Car Empire).

We will now close the matter in our end.

Thank you.

Dear Vic,

At the time of loss, the record from LTA search proofed the insurance coverage was by AIG.

Do note that your insured is still the legal owner of the vehicle at the time of loss.

The attached showed documents only proof that your insured had authorised Car Empire to drive the vehicle.

We have every rights to claim directly against your insured and his authorised driver.

Hi Joy,

We confirmed with Insured that vehicle, SLQ1291M was under consignment with m/s Car Empire Automobiles Pte Ltd ("Car Empire") for selling of vehicles. Also at point of accident, we also confirmed that driver was Mr. Tan Xin Fa, who was an employee of Car Empire.

For insurance policy of SLQ1291M, there is no policy coverage for Motor Trade activity. As such, please assist to inform third party repairer to redirect claim to the Motor Trade insurer of Car Empire.

I have uploaded supporting documents in Merimen for our internal reference.

Thank You.

Dear George,

First off, my sincere apologies for my extremely late response. I am out off Singapore and I only pick up on your email now as my wife is back in Singapore and found some letters relating to the accident in our letterbox.

I was not in Singapore when the accident happened. The situation is as follows. I was selling off my car under consignment with Car Empire (see attached contract) and one of the employees of the car company (see attached IC) was driving the car and had an accident. Car Empire informed me and I shared my insurance details with them and I was actually under the impression that they had reached out to AIG on my behalf. I am now surprised to learn that this may not have happened.

Let me know what needs to be done now, but note that I am not in Singapore. You can reach me on the following number: +61 433 671 918.

I also attach all of the letters we received in our mailbox. One is from the counter party and 2 are from your side.

Looking forward to hearing from you.
