Brief Details.

On the 25/12/2018 at about 0330hrs, I was riding my motorcycle (JML6631) and right after I cleared customs from Woodlands Checkpoint, I went onto the flyover of BKE towards KJE. Out of a sudden I felt an impact from the back and I lost balance and fell onto the road. I immediately stood up wanting to move to the side of the road and I noticed another Singapore registered motorcycle fell behind me. Passer-by came to our assistance and brought my motorcycle to the side of the road as well. I spoke to the other rider namely Muhammad Zulhilmi and he informed that he was the one that collided into my motorcycle. He informed that he was riding at a safe distance behind me and he wanted to change lane to the right however he noticed 2 cars were coming at a fast speed and decided to not change into the lane. At this point of time he was checking his blind-spot and when he turned back, he saw my motorcycle in front of me however was unable to avoid me.

Subsequently ambulance and traffic police came. I was conveyed to Khoo Teck Puat Hospital and was informed that I suffered from fractures on my right wrist and multiple abrasions. I was given Hospitalization Leave (KHANE181497616) from 25/12/2018 to 07/01/2019.
