Subject: Re: GIA REPORT-SFQ8787A

Dear Inthiran

Good afternoon,

As spoken over the phone we had provided our evidence.

Very clearly my vehicle is fully in lane and moving straight, the taxi on the other hand was cutting across 2 lanes.

Please ask the other party to submit their video evidence that they were in lane. The correct procedure for the taxi exiting that part of the roundabout is to have kept to the leftmost lane after the Keng Lee and Bukit Timah exit instead of keeping to the 2nd lane then attempting to perform a sharp left cutting across 2 lanes to exit Clemenceau Ave North causing an accident when my car was in lane and properly going straight.

Please show evidence that the taxi had kept to the correct lane and also the speed at which the taxi was going.

According to BOLA rules they are 100% liable.

If this persists I will look for my RTA lawyer and it would likely result in a substantial increase in insurance costs. Which is what BOLA is trying to avoid.

Thanks

Alvin

P.S: pardon my grammatical and spelling errors, am replying with my mobile device

Thank you.

Regards,
Caroline
