Without Prejudice

Dear Pei Wen,

We refer further to our below email.

Purely for an amicable settlement on a without prejudice basis and without admission of any liability, we have our principal's mandate and confirm acceptance of your offer of $2,001.00 (all in).

Kindly let the owner sign the attached DV and forward back to us a copy for our principal to process the payment.

The above amount is to be made payable to PROGRESSIVE CAR CARE PTE LTD.

Thank you.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters.

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Dear Pei Wen,

With reference to the subject.

Please be informed that basing on the accident statements submitted by parties involved, the liability is clear.

The final repair cost is subject to the consistency of the damages according to the nature of the accident and approval of our principal insurer.

The days for losses(use/income/rental) will be based on the number of days of repair recommended by our surveyor and our principal's approval.

Please note that this e-mail is on without prejudice basis and does not amount to an authorisation of repair to your client's vehicle. Contents herein should not be construed as an admission of any liability, confirmation of damages whatsoever to the insured/insurer's part.

Furthermore, this e-mail should not be regarded as a waiver by QBE of their rights to repudiate the claim should there be future discovery of any breach of policy terms and conditions committed by their driver or insured.
