Brief Details.

On 10/02/2019 at about 1715hrs along Bedok Road towards New Upper Changi road, I was travelling in my vehicle-SLS2279H and was turning left into the carpark of Bedok Food Corner. As I heard a bang on the left rear of my vehicle as I was turning in, I stepped out to make a check and I saw a male rider with his motorcycle-FBD9221A on the ground.

Some passerby and myself helped the rider up and my female friend assisted me to call for the ambulance. I could see some injuries to his body parts but there were no profuse bleeding or fractures.

As the ambulance arrived, the rider does not want any assistance from the paramedic. As the traffic police arrived, they tested the rider on his alcohol level due to the rider smell strongly of alcohol. I heard the officer told the rider that he had failed the test and I was informed by the officer to retrieve the car CCTV footage with the intent to forward to the traffic investigator. The damage to my vehicle were the left rear portion and the front portion of the motorcycle were damaged.
