Circumstances of Accident

I was driving on the extreme right lane on the SLE towards Woodlands and there was a light drizzle. Traffic was also heavy due to peak hour. At around 7.30AM about midway after the lentor AVE/Yishun exit 3, traffic was slowing down including the right lane. The cars in front of me can to a stop and I also followed suit having about two car lengths space from the car in front of me. After a while, my wife and I felt a forceful bang behind and realised that we were hit by SLK5619H. The bang was quite hard and threw my car forward by about half car length. We felt a bit of pain behind our heads due to our heads being thrown back and hitting the headrests. After a short while the pain subsided. There was also third car, SFE2500M involved that hit SLK5619H from behind but we were not impacted as our car quite already quite far away
