On 18 Oct 2018, at around 6.40pm, I was driving out of Bukit Panjang Plaza towards Jelebu Road heading towards Bukit Panjang Road. As I stopped my vehicle at the traffic junction, I heard and felt a "bang" sound from behind my vehicle. My daughter and granddaughter were sitting in the back seat of my car and managed to take a photo of the vehicle behind us. It is a Mercedes, with carplate number SJG1998J.

beside our window (driver side) and gave a hand gesture to move ahead. We interpreted it as that she wanted us to find somewhere to stop ahead where there was lesser traffic. We followed behind her, and continued along Choa Chu Kang Road, Bukit Batok Road, and she increased the speed of her car when it turned off at the traffic light before Brickland Road. As the traffic light turned red, we were unable to follow behind. She did not leave behind any contact details, nor identification for follow-up action.

After reaching home (632 Choa Chu Kang North 6), we took a look at the rear of my vehicle and found a crack near the sensor. Also, there is a U shape scratch line on the rear bumper of my vehicle. We have removed the SD cards from my front and rear camera and took it for safekeeping and for reference.
