Brief Details.

On the 12/03/2019 at about 1840hrs, I was travelling a rental Van (GY1734U) along Kallang Bahru Road near to the yellow box located outside Blk 71. My vehicle was in the first lane proceeding forward to cross the yellow box when one Vehicle (SJL9021Z) which was turning out from the gantry of the car park of Blk 71 crossed the yellow box onto my lane and collided onto my vehicle which was proceeding forwards. He had collided onto the front left portion of my vehicle. I was in shock and was stunned for a moment however I subsequently alighted to inspect the damages. I called for ambulance and ambulance as well as traffic police officers attended to me. I was proceeding forward at that point in time and did not notice the said car turning into my lane from the left. The other driver did not notice my car in the first lane as well when he was turning out which resulted in the collision. I had managed to obtain the other driver's particulars. My vehicle had sustained dents to the front left portion. My vehicle does not have a front in-car camera however I noticed that the other parties car had one. I was advised to lodge a report regarding this incident. I did not notice if there were any cameras in the vicinity of the road. a TP officer had also gave the other driver a warning stating that he was at fault for not looking for oncoming traffic when coming out from a side road to a main road. I felt some pain and had also visited a doctor after the accident who had given me 3 days of medical leave. I am lodging this report for recording as well as insurance purposes.
