Brief Details.

On 04/04/2019, at about 2045hrs, I had just parked my car at the multi-storey carpark of Park Crescent beside a van and leaving the carpark when the said van drove out of the parking lot and left. I then went back to my car and discovered scratches on the bottom right area of my front bumper of my car. I did not manage to catch the van's licence plate number, but my car has an in-car camera installed which was recording. There were no injuries to any pedestrians or any government property damaged. I am lodging this police report for recording and insurance purposes.

Brief Facts.

On the above mentioned date time and location

With reference to report number T/20190404/2200, I wish to add on updated facts.

updated facts are as follows;

I parked my vehicle at the said carpark for approximately 15 minutes. During that point of time, there's only 1 van parked beside my vehicle (The Van's parked on the right). After running my errands, I returned to the carpark only to find out that my vehicle's been dented. Upon further inspection, I described a dent that's protruding outwards. This evokes the deduction that the one and only plausible way to cause this damage is for the Van, which was previously parked beside my vehicle, to move outwards. Most definitely not inwards as I mentioned before, the damage protrudes outwards. Essentially there were no witnesses as the Van blocks the point of view for any one to witness. Neither were there any from the rear. No camera's were at the area as well. What I do have, is a camera footage of my vehicle, performing a reverse parking. Sadly, my vehicle in-car camera doesn't operate whilst parked. My primary objective of updating this report is to claim insurance and also hoping that this matter could reach the other party involved and not allowing him to run free.

The Van's plate number is GBF5233E
