Dear Irene

At that time, I had visited Premier for another matter and managed to speak to Mr Goh Wee Dek who informed me that the taxi driver was no longer driving Premier taxi. He informed me that he will check with the taxi driver on the additional photos taken at the accident scene. I was subsequently informed by him that the taxi driver had came back saying that there are no further photos apart from the 2 that he had submitted.

Best Regards,

Bryan Ang

FOR YOUR IMMEDIATE ACTION

Good afternoon Bryan,

We refer to your email of 13.5.19 which is reproduced here for your easy reference.

Dear Irene

I refer to your request below.

I have inspected the insured vehicle last Friday. Insured driver (spouse of insured) was in attendance. In summary, insured driver is not disputing that there was contact between the front of insured vehicle and the rear of the Premier taxi. He is disputing on the extent of damage to the taxi. According to him, the scene photo provided by the taxi driver was cropped to cover the side of the rear bumper, which was not dislodged at the material time and therefore does not warrant the repair cost claimed. He also mentioned that there were more photos taken by the taxi driver. He is agreeable for MSIG to resolve the TP claim but wants the settlement amount to be reasonable.

In light of insured driver's comments on the accident scene photos, I will be requesting Premier to check with their driver for more photos and thereafter follow up with any adjustment to the COR if necessary.

Best Regards,
Bryan Ang
LKK Auto Consultants Pte Ltd

Our insured has just received a bodily injury claim from the taxi driver's appointed law firm totalling about $15,000.00. And likewise, our insured is disputing on this $15,000 bodily injury claim on the basis that the taxi driver did snap many pictures on the rear portion of his taxi at the accident scene which may show only minor damage without the dislodgement of the rear bumper.

Our colleague, Mr Keny Ong who is handling the 3rd party driver's bodily injury claim of $15,000 is now asking for all the pictures snapped by the taxi driver at the accident scene. Please see his email request below.

As you have mentioned that you would request Premier to check with their driver for more photos in your email of 13.5.19 as above, can you ask for all the pictures snapped by the Premier taxi driver at the accident scene and forward them to us with your comments on the consistency of the damage?

We look forward to your response with all the pictures snapped at the accident scene by the Premier taxi driver as soon as possible or within the next 3 days by Friday, 5.7.19.

Dear Irene

Our insured driver of SMJ3582K had reported that the third party taxi driver took some photos of both vehicles at the scene of accident.

Please request from the third party repairer all the said scene photos.

Have a great day !
