Without Prejudice

Dear Sirs/Mdm,

Thank you for your email.

We have spoken to our driver on this matter and he adamant that he parked his taxi along the road side to take a nap. Suddenly, he felt an impact, wake up and realised that your client had hit his taxi. Our driver insisted that his taxi was stationary and hit by your client.

In view of this, we regret to inform you that we have our principal instruction to deny liability and unable to look into your client's claim.

Thank you.

"Kindly note that this negotiation between parties on this matter is purely on a without prejudice basis with the sole intention of resolving the matter amicably without parties resorting to legal proceedings. No admission of liability, whatsoever, should be deemed / inferred from this negotiation of terms/settlement."

In the event of new evidence being discovered or subsequently produced by either party that will materially affect/influence on the issues of liability/damages, either party is not bound, thereafter, by the negotiation terms/settlement."

Note: We are on work from home arrangement. All correspondence should be made via email. Submission of claim related documents will be in softcopy. Any inconvenience caused is much regretted.

Best Regards,

Hsiao Tong, Chew (Ms) | Case Handler
