Brief Details.

On the 21/04/2019 at about 0040hrs, I was travelling in my vehicle SKA6179T along Woodlands Avenue 2 on lane 3 when there was a foreign motorcycle JRR3912 in front of my vehicle.

We were then approaching a traffic light when the traffic light then turned red and the said motorcycle rider then applied brakes and I then stopped my vehicle and couldn't stop in time and collided onto the rear of the said motorcycle who was in front of me and the said rider then fell onto the road surface as a result of the collision.

No visible injuries was observed on the said motorcyclist. No police or ambulance came to scene. My vehicle front right headlight and bumper suffered serious damages as a result of the collision. I was then advised by my insurance company to lodge a traffic accident report as it involves a foreign vehicle. That's all.

I did not managed to exchange particulars with him as he informed that he was not injured and my phone battery was flat on that day. However, I did provide my name and phone number to him asking him to stay in contact with me.
