Brief Details.

On 16/02/2018 at about 2250hrs, I was driving my Mercedes vehicle bearing registration number SCN338S along River Valley Rd and nothing was amiss.

On the same day at about 2300hrs, upon the junction of Kim Seng Promenade I made a right turn and to my amiss I then heard a loud collision from the rear. I quickly stopped my vehicle and make a check. It was then I discovered there was a bike bearing registration number JRR9835 was already on the floor and there was an Indian male rider injured but was conscious.

In addition, I noticed that my rear bumper were dented and there were minor scratches seen.

Soon there was a passer-by at scene who assist to activate ambulance. Not long after ambulance and Traffic Police (Vide: came to scene. The rider was then conveyed to hospital.

I wish to state that there was another car who managed to capture on the footage of the accident via an in-built CCTV installed and the said footage has been handed over to the Traffic Police. I was not injured and my vehicle is still able to move off. I wish to state that I did not managed to establish the particulars of the rider as he was conveyed to hospital.

Brief Details.

On 16th February 2017, I was riding my motorbike along Kim Seng Road towards Outram Road to go to my workplace at Furama Riverfront Hotel when I met with an accident with a Singapore-registered car, a Mercedes. I was travelling on the 2nd lane and going straight towards Outram Road when the said Mercedes which was on the 3rd lane, slowed down and suddenly made a sharp 90 degrees turn to the right. I wish to state that only 1st and 2nd lane can make the right turn and there is a double white line between the 2nd and 3rd lane. I tried to avoid the accident by braking and changing lane to the 1st lane however I was unable to stop in time. I jammed brake and threw myself on the road resulting in my motorbike hitting onto the Mercedes right back door. The said car went over my motorbike and my motorbike has to be towed away. Ambulance came and subsequently conveyed me to SGH for treatment as I suffered some open wounds and bruises to my hands, elbows, knees and legs. I did not manage to exchange any particulars with the Mercedes driver as I was felling dizzy.

I have one witness who informed me that he saw the whole accident, as he was driving his car bearing registration plate no. SLP8702D behind me. His vehicle has an in-car camera and he can be contacted at 90011244 (Kamal). While I was in the hospital A&E receiving treatment, one Traffic Police officer by the name of Syed Zayid came and record my statement and he informed me to lodge a traffic accident report within 24hours. I was given 7 days of Medical Leave.

Brief Details

On 10/02/2018 at about 2355hrs, I was driving my car SCN3385 (Mercedes) along Kim Seng Road, at the second lane from the right. When my car reaching to a right turn into Kim Seng Promenade, I made a quick right signal and turned my car to the right. As I find that the road is clear and quiet, I did not make a blind spot check.

However, while making the turn, a motorcycle JFR9835 hit into my car's right rear side. Due to the collision, the motorcycle and the male Malay rider fell to his right side, and still on the road. I then came out of my car and assisted the rider. At the same time, there is another rider who also stopped, assisted and called for ambulance. I then advised the injured rider to remained lay down. I noticed there is a bruised on his right leg.

Later the Traffic Police officer came conducted his investigation. Soon after, ambulance came and the injured rider were conveyed an unknown hospital to me.

After the Traffic Police officer concluded his investigation, he gave me a case card with details of the case reference number.

I therefore lodging this report to assist police in the investigation.
