WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Dear Jason,

We refer further to the below email.

Purely for an amicable settlement on a without prejudice basis and without admission of liability, we are of the view that both parties are equally liable in view of conflicting versions. As such, we have our principal's mandate and we offer a global sum of $4,500.00 (all in) to settle your client's claim. Unless proven otherwise.

If agreeable, kindly chop and sign the attached DV and forward back a copy to us for payment processing.

The above amount is to be made payable to FASTECH AUTO PTE LTD.

Thank you.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters."

« Wishing you a Happy and Prosperous Lunar New Year »

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Dear Shiying,

We refer to the above matter.

We are of the opinion that this is a case of conflicting versions. There is no conclusive evidence yet to substantiate either party's version. Enclosed herewith in this email is a copy of our insured's accident report for your perusal.

We are in a course of investigating into the circumstances of the accident. After verifying further with our OI we will revert with our opinion on the cause of the accident. Kindly do not refer to any party for legal assistance until you heard further from us.

Meanwhile, kindly forward to us with any evidence (if any) your client have to support your claim.

Thank you.
