Without Prejudice

Dear Norsipah,

We refer further to our below email.

Purely for an amicable settlement on a without admission of liability to our Insured's part, we have our principal's mandate and we confirm acceptance of your offer of $9,800.03 (all in).

Kindly note that no DV is required for this settlement.

The above amount is to be made payable to TAN CHONG MOTOR SALES PTE LTD.

Thank you.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters.

Settlement and payment are subject to production of original documents on demand at any time and execution of Discharge Voucher (for settlement sum above $20,000/-) by the Plaintiff/Claimant. Further all original documents shall be retained by us after we have made payment on the settlement sum.

Best Regards,
