I was my car was parked stationary in a carpark lot of People's Park centre. I was away for a substantial period of time for work. When I ~~was~~ ended work, I therefore went to retrieve my car and found out that the front of my vehicle was severely damaged. I then realised there was a note written in pen admitting that he/she hit my car and asked me to call the number to settle privately but I do not agree on the above request.
