Dear Bernard,

The above matter refers.

Insured reported that whilst reversing his vehicle to park he did not see Third party vehicle door was open.

Whereas, Third party reported that his vehicle door was open and Insured reversed to park and hit the Third party vehicle door.

Based on all the documents at hand, we note that the collision occurred when Insured driver reversed to park and collided into Third party's vehicle door which was already open.

We have contacted and spoken with Insured (company representative: Mr. Wee), whom confirmed the accident and agreed to settle.

We have also reviewed the matter and opine that liability is not in our Insured's favour because Insured driver in his statement stated that he did not see the Third party vehicle door was already open whilst reversing his m/vehicle to park and hit the Third party vehicle door.

Please refer to the Insured's GIA sketch & statement below for your easy reference.

I notice vehicle B was parked at the lot I slowly reversed along the driveway, I did not see vehicle B rear left door was open. While in the midst of reversing suddenly I hear a sound, I immediately stop & come down to check, then realised that vehicle B has his rear left door opened & hit against it.
