Brief Details.

I am a taxi driver of SHD3625L. On 01/12/2018 at about 2242hrs, I picked up 2 Philippines tourist from the Max Atria, Expo and they requested to drop them at Grand Central located at 22 Cavenagh Rd S(229617). On 2305hrs, I was at along Kramat Road (extreme left lane) and the traffic was heavy at that particular moment. I was the third car waiting for the traffic light to turn green. As the traffic was jam and vehicles were moving slowly, my passengers decided to alight and walk to their Hotel. Once my passengers made the payment for the taxi fare, the one sitting on the extreme left opened the door. Less then one second later, a motorcycle bearing registration number FBE8030K squeeze through on the left and hit the edge of my taxi door while the passenger open it. Due to the impact, the rider skidded and lie on the ground less then a meter away. My taxi was stopping at the extreme left and about 2 steps away from the curb. I then made a check on the rider who was conscious and we exchanged particulars. Shortly after, Traffic Police officer came to my scene and issued me with a case card (E/201811201/0179). The rider was then conveyed to the hospital by ambulance. Both my passengers were not injured and my taxi had some paints chipped off at the edge of the rear left passenger.
