SKK977T is the black car. 3:27 PM

SLM3077Z is the white car

3:27 PM

Sorry i think you guys doing the accident for motor car damages

3:31 PM

I think although both car to blame, majority fault lie with white car SLM3077Z

White car supposed to be at stop line, means traffic in front of him have right of way, so I'm actually in front of him, since we turning to the road which is going towards my direction. He suddenly accelerate the moment taxi in front of black car move off and cut in front of my and take my turning lane

3:34 PM

But he should actually either give way to me or turn into the position behind me

3:34 PM

When I'm turning, i looking in front of the traffic already when he suddenly accelerate into my path, when i notice him is too late and he turn so close to me i cannot stop in time and brush against his rear

3:35 PM

Would you need anymore details
