Brief details.

On Friday 28 June 2019 around 09:50 pm, my friend and I (3 of us) were at one of the traffic lights crossing in Orchard Road waiting to cross the road. We were crossing from the traffic light in front of Mandarin Gallery towards Abercrombie & Fitch building. The traffic light turned green for the pedestrians and vehicles travelling along Orchard Road towards Dhoby Ghaut had stopped. Pedestrians (including us) started to cross the road. However, when we had almost completed 1/3 of the crossing, vehicle SKV4057P dashed across the road. The driver of SKV4057P had beaten the red light. He could have knocked down a lots of people (including us) crossing the road at the pedestrian crossing at that time.
