Dear Bennie,

We refer further to your below email.

It was reported by Insured that when the traffic light turned green, he drove within the lane and made a right turn when TP vehicle on his right, on a turning right lane only, move towards its left and collided to his vehicle while turning within its lane. The Insured vehicle was on a turning right or go straight lane while TP vehicle was on a right turn lane only.

Based on the Insured footage, Insured vehicle was within the lane when the collision occurred.

As such, we would like to reject the TP claim.

For your approval and/or further instructions please.

Thank you.

Best Regards,
