Without Prejudice

Dear Kazali,

We refer further to our below email.

Purely for an amicable settlement and without admission of liability, in view of both vehicles were changing towards the same lane, our principal is prepared to settle your client's claim of a 50/50 basis at a global sum of $3,230.00 (all in).

If agreeable, kindly chop and sign the attached DV and forward the original copy to us for our principal to process the payment.

Thank you.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters."

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Dear Kazali,

We refer to the above matter.

Our Insured reported that he was already in the lane when your client swerved into his lane. Enclosed herewith in this email is a copy of our insured's accident report for your perusal.

We are in a course of investigating into the circumstances of the accident. After verifying further with our OI we will revert with our opinion on the cause of the accident. Kindly do not refer to any party for legal assistance until you heard further from us.

Meanwhile, kindly forward to us a copy of your client's video footage for our further review.

Thank you.
