Dear Hai Chuan

We refer to the above matter,

As per instruction we rejected PD claim. TP disagree on the rejection and appeal as follows:

AIG's insured driver reported that his vehicle was stationary before the collision. You had in your email of 12 September 2017 commented your observations that the vehicle was already moving even before taxi had swerved into his lane.

Both vehicles should exercise consideration. BOLA Scenario 14(a) applies to this case and liability is 50:50.

Kindly advise if we would maintain our position of denial.

Thank you

Hi Vivian,

Based on the video footage, the taxi has swerved into the OID's lane too early. Further we observed that OID vehicle is already moving even before the taxi swerved into his lane. Thus onus is on the taxi. To reject the PD claim.

We refer to subject matter resting with our email dated 17 October 2017.

AIG's insured driver reported that his vehicle was stationary before the collision. You had in your email of 12 September 2017 commented your observations that the vehicle was already moving even before taxi had swerved into his lane.

Both vehicles should exercise consideration. BOLA Scenario 14(a) applies to this case and liability is 50:50.

Please let us have your early reply with offer to wrap up this long outstanding case. Thank you.
