Without Prejudice

Dear Angie,

We refer further to the below email.

Purely for an amicable settlement on a without prejudice basis and without admission of liability or whatsoever against our Insured, our principal is in the view that both parties are to share equal liability. Our Insured may have a stop line, but the collision did not occurred right after the stop line. Our Insured had already crossed and already in the opposite lane (red circled) and was ahead of your client and your client should be able to see our Insured vehicle which is ahead of him but still continued to move forward (please refer to the below photos).

As such, we have our principal's mandate and we offer settlement as below:

Cost of Repair (w/gst)	$ 2,300.50
Loss of Rental ($100 x 9 days)	$ 900.00
Subtotal	$ 3,200.50
50%	$ 1,600.25
TOTAL	$ 1,600.25

If agreeable, kindly chop and sign attached DV and forward back to us a copy for our Principal to process the payment.

The above amount is to be made payable to J-MART MOTOR PTE LTD.

Thank you.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters.

Best Regards,
