WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Dear Jason,

We refer to the subject matter and to our attached email.

Purely for an amicable settlement on a without prejudice basis and without admission of liability, our principal had further reviewed the matter and in the view that both parties are equally liable in view of conflicting versions. As such, we have our principal's mandate and we offer a global sum of $5,800.00 (all in) to settle your client's claim. Unless proven otherwise.

For your acceptance please.

The above amount is to be made payable to FASTECH AUTO PTE LTD.

Thank you.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters."
