Brief Details.

On 17/09/2019 at about 6.58pm, I was driving along Toh Guan Road together with my girlfriend. I gradually stopped my vehicle (SJJ8830Y) as we approached the zebra crossing before turning left into Toh Guan Road East. Out of a sudden, I felt a strong impact from the rear after we passed the zebra crossing. I realized that another vehicle (SJP3467P) had collided into our vehicle. I went out to make a check, and saw that the back portion of my vehicle was badly damaged. I could not drive the vehicle off, as such, we had to activate a tow truck. No ambulance or police called as no one was injured.

A few hours after the accident, my girlfriend and I felt some discomfort on our back, as such we went to Mount Alvernia Hospital to get ourselves checked. We were given 5 days of medical leave each.
