Brief Details.

On 28/09/2019 @1205hrs, I was driving a rented car (SKL399G) along Rangoon Road towards Serangoon Road and there were 4 of my family members inside the vehicle. When I was about to reach the junction of Rangoon Road and Kent Road, I noticed that there was a cement truck which was stationary at the side of the road. I then continued to drive forward and the said cement truck suddenly made a right turn from a stationary position into Kent Road and in the process collided onto the left rear side of my vehicle causing my vehicle to mount the kerb. I then alighted from my vehicle to make a check and discovered that the other driver is a Chinese National and we were not able to communicate due to language barrier. As I worried that my family members could be injured due to the accident, I called for a Grab car and went to Tan Tock Seng Hospital for check-up leaving my car behind. While I was seeking treatment at Tan Tock Seng Hospital, I received a call from Traffic Police officer enquiring about the accident and also the extent of the injury. I was then advised to lodge an accident report. My car was towed away by the towing vehicle engaged by the car rental company. I and my family members were given medical leaves for 3 days except for my father who was given 4 days medical leave. The junction where the accident took place is not a controlled junction as there is no traffic light.
