Dear Mr. Lee Ming Yao,

The above matter refers.

According to our Insured's GIA, we noted that Insured was travelling in his own lane and third party collided into the Insured vehicle.

On the other hand, the Third party said in his GIA that, Insured had swerved into his lane and collision ensued.

However, based on the video footage provided by third party, we noted that third party was changing lanes and had encroached into our Insured's path whom was travelling in his own lane.

We append below the screenshots taken from the accident video to show the lane marking and also google map screenshots on the lanes for your easy reference:

As such, we suggest to reject Third party's claim for changing lanes without proper lookout and encroaching into our Insured's lane.

Your approval please.

Thank you.
