POLICE REPORT (NP299)

CONTINUATION OF REPORT

Report No. G/20191026/2108

On the same day at about 2230hrs, I went back to the place which I had parked my car. After unlocking the car, I noticed a white in colour note which was placed on my car windscreen. I went out of the car and took a look at the note and saw the following content "Please call this no: Mr Dong 88704236". The content was handwritten using a black ink pen. Before calling the said number that was written on the note, I made a visual check around my car and noticed that there was a damage to my front left bumper and also to my front head light. I also noticed that there was a dent and scratch marks seen on my left front bumper. After making a check, I contacted the given number.

A male Chinese subject did answer the call and he informed that he is Mr Dong. He admitted to me that earlier his lorry (YP7647H) had hit onto my car. He mentioned that he is the driver and he informed that while he was reversing, he had collided onto the front left side of my car. He also mentioned that he waited for 20 mins but was unable to get hold of the driver thus he was the one who wrote the note and left it on the windscreen of the car before leaving the said location.

I had already informed my car workshop with regards to the accident and also the damages on my car. As of now the cost of the repair to my car as informed by my workshop is still unknown as further checks are required on their end. My vehicle has an in car camera which is facing the front and rear however it is non-operational once my engine is turn off.

I am lodging this report for insurance claim against the said driver and also for my own record purpose.
