LOCATION: Along Bukit Timah Rd near Burlington Square

As I was driving along the road, keeping to my lane, a lorry knocked the right rear of my vehicle near the fuel cap. I heard the smashing sound after feeling the knock and saw that the blue lorry's front left headlights had been damaged. We quickly pulled over to the bus lane / left most lane and stepped out to assess each other's vehicle, taking photos. The Chinese man was with an Indian subordinate. The Chinese man told me that there was a vehicle on his right, so he cut into my lane, as he made way for the other, given no choice / space. Thereafter he asked me how ^{much} to settle*. I said I would send to M/N I for a quotation. He quickly said we would each report to our insurance company, and left.

* because his lorry didn't matter.
