Dear Mr. Tan,

ACCIDENT INVOLVING SLN8240E & SMC4625B ON 26/11/2019 ALONG TAMAN WARNA ROAD

We refer to the above matter and your e-mail below.

Please be informed that AIG has rejected the Third party claim in view of the Traffic Police Investigation Outcome.

We are sorry to inform you that we cannot reveal the Third party's name and IC number as we are bound by the Private Data Protection Act 2012.

Thank you.

"Wishing you a Happy and Prosperous Lunar New Year"

Best Regards,

Dear Khanchna

I refer to your letter cc4/aig19021504/kkb3.

Please kindly share the details of the other driver (Name/IC) of SMC4625B , who has launched the 3rd party claim against me.

Per the attached TP investigation, the law has clearly stated that the fault lies with the other driver who is fully at fault and fully liable. Furthermore, the Law and Police found that the other driver is guilty of causing hurt to me in the process.

AIG and LKK should be 100% fully confident of recovering in FULL – be it repairs or total loss – from the other driver of SMC4625B/her insurance NTUC. AIG should also be 100% confident of defending the 3rd party claim against me and as i said, not pay a single cent to them. Instead we will claim 100% against them for damages to my car and loss of use.

As mentioned, kindly share the details of the other driver (Name/IC) of SMC4625B , who has launched the 3rd party claim against me.

Thank you

Mr.Tan
