Circumstances of Accident

The accident happened on 11th December 2019 at 540 pm on the Singaporean part of the causeway. I was in the direction returning to Singapore. I was in a queue and my vehicle was stationary. Suddenly I heard and felt a bang and there was silver proton which crashed into my left end rear. The proton car continued moving forwards without stopping and scratched and severely dented my entire right side. The proton car could not stop because the proton car itself was hit by a moving lorry and the lorry continued moving forwards even after the impact. The proton car, initially behind me, was hit by the lorry because the proton driver tried to cut from the left lane into the right lane of the moving lorry at the last moment and the lorry could not stop in time. After the proton car was pushed by the lorry all the way till it was in front of me, and both the proton car and the lorry stopped, I got out of my vehicle to speak to the drivers of the proton car and the lorry.
