CONTINUATION OF REPORT

Brief Details.

On the stated date, and place, I fetched 4 passengers from Bedok North to Mt Elizabeth Novena Hospital. Upon exiting PIE, I missed the Thomson Exit by a mere 1 to 2 meters and stopped at the chevron lines. I then reversed my car a little to clear the curb and make a left turn into Thomson Road. While driving off, the said passenger started to express his unhappiness at me as he claims that my action was dangerous. I try to explained to him that I have practice due care before making the turn earlier. He was unsatisfied with my answer and continue to scold and hurled vulgarities at me. I told him that I could not continue to send him to his destination if he continues to verbally abuse me. While we were at the traffic light just before the Shell petrol station, the passenger suddenly opened the car's door while we were waiting for the traffic to clear in the middle on Thomson Road. I then offered him to continue to send him to his destination as the hospital is very near. Upon reaching the hospital, he continues with his vulgarities. No payment was made by the said passenger. There was no accident that took place. Nobody was physically injured, no damage to any property.
