Without Prejudice

Dear Pei Jin,

We refer further to the below email.

Please be informed that our principal had further reviewed the matter and based on the available information and evidence at their hand, our principal is in the view that our Insured's version is more probable. We were informed by our principal that your client had beat the red light at the junction when the accident happened.

As such, we have our principal's instruction and that we are unable to look into your client's claim.

You may contact directly our principal if you would like to have more information.

We will now close the matter in our end.

Thank you.

Best Regards,

Dear Sir/Madam,

ACCIDENT INVOLVING VEHICLES SHB 3391X AND YP 2101Z ON 20/12/2019

We refer to the above matter.

We are of the opinion that this is a case of conflicting versions. There is no conclusive evidence yet to substantiate either party's version. Enclosed herewith in this email is a copy of our insured's accident report for your perusal.

We are in a course of investigating into the circumstances of the accident. After verifying further with our OI we will revert with our opinion on the cause of the accident. Kindly do not refer to any party for legal assistance until you heard further from us.

Meanwhile, kindly forward to us with any evidence (if any) your client have to support your claim.

Thank you.

"Wishing you a Happy and Prosperous Lunar New Year"
