Dear Vic

We refer to your email.

Regret that our client did not manage to record the incident. But our client mentioned that at that time the traffic was congestion he stopped and wait for the vehicle in front to clear and he noticed your insured vehicle, he stay put and let him pass, but your insured only look on his left and did not check the right side traffic and he just turn to the right and thus hitting our client car front portion and still continue scratched through the way.

Our client is not at fault.

I was driving my car(SME4006C) along Namly Ave approaching the stop line at the junction of Sixth Ave. As I stopped behind the stop line, I noticed the traffic light at Jalan Haji Alias turned red as such the traffic builds up and the cars were all stationery, queueing and waiting for the traffic light to turn green leaving the yellow box at my junction empty. As I observed the cars travelling towards Holland Road had cleared the yellow box for me to enter, I looked out for traffic on the other side of the road (towards Dunearn Road). The traffic was clear as such I drove out and wanted to turn right into Sixth Ave (Towards Dunearn) when a car(SGS982H) squeezed within its lane, drove along the chevron markings and side swiped onto my car causing the right side of my car to be damaged. No government properties damaged, no one was injured and No foreign vehicles involved.
