Hi Denise,

Adjusted COR after initial survey currently is at $75k.
This is before any additional damages/check items.

In view of this plus some additional damages internally (i.e. rear trimmings, seats trim), it is unlikely that we are able to undertake the repair within the limit of $68k.

Dear Paul,

Enclosed estimate.

Please check if you are able to repair all in within $68,000/-

Best Regards,
