Brief Details.

On the above mentioned date and time, I was the driver of CNB Car bearing plate no.: SLA2078R. Saravanan, Fayyaz and Edwy were passengers in the vehicle. We were on the way back to CNB Jurong Office.

While we were waiting at a traffic junction near Blk 759, Jurong West Avenue 5, we felt the car jerk and heard a loud sound. We knew that someone had hit our car from the rear.

I immediately parked the car and turned the hazard lights on and checked if anyone was injured. Everyone in my vehicle was fine. I then left my vehicle. I saw an elderly chinese male exiting the vehicle that had hit our vehicle. The vehicle that hit our vehicle was bearing Plate No.: GBJ9114U. The elderly man that exited out of the vehicle apologised to me for hitting our car and told me that he will pay the repair cost of my vehicle.

I told him that I am a Civil Servant and that I am driving a government vehicle. I also told him that I have to follow certain procedures. I exchanged particulars and contact details with the other driver. His particulars was established to be Loh Eng Gim bearing NRIC No.: S1796290F. Following which I checked with Loh Eng Gim if he was injured. He told me he was not injured and that he does not require any medical attention.

Both I and Loh Eng Gim took photographs of both our vehicles. I then moved my vehicle slightly forward to take better photographs. Once we have taken the photographs, at about 6.58 pm, we parted ways and I drove our vehicle to CNB Jurong Office located at Jurong Police Headquarters.
