Dear Asher,

All my cases, no estimate we cannot agree to any form of settlement, since you have ensure me that you will closely monitor this case .

Basing on GIA reports yes we can agree to your proposal on liability, quantum to be agreed.

Please also take note that when VAC survey this vehicle at falcon air, TP workshop put up a lot of irrelevant not consistent items into their estimate as the TP trying to pull a fast one out of this claim.

Kindly verify damage consistency and deduct all unnecessary/irrelevant items.

If workshop engage their own surveyor, this email is void.

Please let us have the following after survey.

Once the Preliminary report/Survey report in, please let us have a copy together with your email seeking for mandate.
if there is anything out of the ordinary, please indicate in email or your report.

After that we need to inform our Insured Driver about this claim(please wait for about 1 to 2 weeks after your send email asking for mandate for us to give mandate).

If I did not response to you after 2 weeks, please call me or send me another email.
