If the Certificate of Insurance has been lost or destroyed, a Statutory Declaration to that effect must be made. Failure to comply with this obligation is an offence under the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Risks and Compensation) Act (Cap.88).

This Policy will cease to be valid once the motor vehicle has been sold to another person unless the transfer of interest has been duly notified to and agreed to by the insurance company concerned. If the insurance company agrees to cover the new owner, they will issue a new Certificate of Insurance in the new owner's name. The premium chargeable may vary according to the new owner's profile.

Brief Details.

On the 01/02/2020 at around 1920hrs, I drove my vehicle SMQ 5608 X into the Basement carpark of Golden Landmark Shopping Centre. I wanted to park my vehicle into the a carpark lot and I drove head in. However as the carpark lot was too small, I reversed my vehicle out from the lot and the right portion of my car hit the left portion of a parked car on my right, lot no 91. The vehicle that I hit is SKD 7122 J Grey colour Toyota. After the collision, I parked my vehicle as a proper lot before I went to get to the shopping centre to get a piece of paper as I wanted to write a note, containing my contact number, and place it on the car that I have hit. However around 1950hrs, I went back to the basement carpark and the car which I have hit had already left the scene. I am lodging this Report as I have no intention of hit and run accident as I has gone to get a piece of paper from the shopping centre and only to realize it had already left when I went back to the carpark.
