| On the 26/02/2020 at 16:40hrs I received a CALL from SINMING regarding an incident on the 26/02/2020 at 14:00hrs along Joo Chiat PI involved with cyclist.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| During the date and time I was driving along Telok Kurau Rd turning towards Joo Chiat PL with no passenger on board my taxi. Before I turning into Joo Chiat PI, I checked any pedestrian crossing before proceed to turn when suddenly a cyclist was above to cross so I swerve a bit to avoid collision with the cyclist. There's no contact with the cyclist and I proceed my journey towards Parkway Hospital. |
| I am filling this report as instructed.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
