Brief Details.

I was driving along Pasir Ris Dr 4 at approx 0845hrs heading towards Pasir Ris Dr 3. I was travelling on the right lane. I was on my way to drop off my son, Tengku Ethan Khaliq, who was in the car with me, to his school at Aranda Country Club. I drove past the traffic light junction of Pasir Ris St 41 at the speed of 60km/h on the right lane. The traffic light was green when I drove towards it & as I drove past it. As I drove past the traffic light junction on the right lane, I saw ahead on the right across the 2 opposite lanes, a black car exiting out from the road between Blk231 & multi-storey carpark Blk231A. The car was driving out slowly across the 2 opposite lanes going straight towards the center road divider. When my car was approx 20m away from the black car, I saw the black car front portion had encroached into the right lane (my travelling path). At that point, I saw that approx

1m of the front portion of the black car was in my travelling path & it continued moving to initiate a right turn. I also saw that the driver was not looking towards my direction. I then swerved leftwards to avoid a frontal collision. I did not horn or initiate emergency brake so as not to lose control of the car & I was not confident of having sufficient braking distance. I saw that the black car still continued moving towards me after I swerved & its front left side portion was going to hit the right side of my car. I then felt an impact coming from the right side. I was jerked inside the car which made me steered rightwards & my foot off the accelerator pedal. I felt the car dragging the black car & came to a stop. After my car stopped, I switched off the engine & checked if my son was injured (he was seated on the front passenger seat & with fastened seatbelt & was sitting on a booster seat). He had no visible injuries nor complained that he had any pain. I then exited my car & saw the black car (SJF7668C) was driven by a female driver. She got out of her car & I asked her if she was ok. She said she was in shock & is 3-months pregnant. I told her to calm down & opened the rear back door of her car to allow her to sit. I did not see any visible injuries on her. I asked for her permission to switch off her car engine. She granted & I switched it off. I asked her if she needs to call anyone. She said she wants to call her husband & I helped get her handphone in her handbag at the front passenger seat. As I was tending to her, a bystander identified himself as a police officer (not in uniform) from the Airport Division came to check on us & asked if we are ok or if have any injury. I did not check his ID but saw him carrying an SPF lanyard. Both of us made calls. When we both got off the phone, I took my son out of my car & led both my son & the female driver to a safer area to sit down & calm themselves at a nearby bus-stop in front of Blk 434. As we were sitting down for approx 3mins, an ambulance & a TP officer on a police bike arrived to the scene. The paramedics checked all 3 of us. I was asked by a female paramedic if both my son & I wore seatbelt. I replied "Yes". After checking, they assessed that no critical or immediate medical attention was required that warrants being taken to a nearby hospital via ambulance. The husband of the female driver then arrived on scene. After the paramedic left, another TP officer arrived on the scene on a police bike. I was told by them no police report was required unless one of us has 3 days MC. I then exchanged particulars with the female driver & her husband (Female Driver: Lee Hui Xian S8709265H Hp No 98004125, Husband: Mark Lee Hp No 91829643). We took pics of the accident scene & cleared the area. Mark Lee informed me that he will bring Mdm Lee to a gynae for checks. At approx 1452hrs, I called Mark Lee & was informed that Mdm Lee was given hospitalisation leave by Wendy Women's Clinic from 17 - 20 Mar for shock & to monitor her status. I then made my way to Pasir Ris NPC to lodge a report.
