Hi Cecilia,

Since insured is adamant that he indeed did paid TP $1,000.00 as a form of private settlement, please reject TP claim on the basis that there is private settlement among both parties and hence this claim had been resolved between both parties.

With regards to the NCD issue, it will only be affect once on the policy year, if NCD had been affected previously we will not affect it again for the same accident.

Thank you.

Hi KC,

Have spoken to OI over the phone.

OI claim that previously TP did mention to him that the damage is at the bumper and message OI to pay third party on the repair cost of less than $1K and that was after may 2015.
(after our ex colleague contacted him of notifying on the TP claim and NCD issue).

Thereafter, he paid the amount that TP asking for in cash with no documentation done. (Currently he does not have the message or documents proof as is 5 years ago).

And even state that when he bought new vehicle thereafter, the NCD is already deducted by AXA insurance.

So OI ask, if there is no proof of showing the private settlement, he can allow us to settle this matter if his NCD will not be affected again in regards to this accident that happen 5years ago, so kindly advice if NCD will be affected again for this time? If will be affected again on the same accident matter, OI disagree to settle and will want to go for legal ways to fight this matter.

If there is any unclear issue in this email, please do not hesitate to contact me at my mobile number 8891 1278 as I am currently still working from home.

Many thanks

Importance: High

Hi Cecilia,

As per insured report, insured reported that there is private settlement.

As such, please engage insured and verify with insured did the private settlement take place.
If yes, please procure for a copy of the private settlement letter, if no please proceed as follows:

COR: $2,500.00
LOU: $480.00 (6days)
LTA: $5.35
TOTAL: $2,985.35- $3,000.00 (all-in)

Describe Circumstances of the Accident

The other car ~~SAIT-THS-WI~~ ~~was~~ driven by Mr Tan was stopped just in front of the bus stop waiting for one of the passengers to go into the car and my car was behind ~~the~~ his car. The road was going towards PIE at TOA Payoh for 2. His car was trying to filter many times into the lanes and hesitated many times to filter and stop and was blocking the buses and traffic.

Eventually there was a "clear" to filter and his car moved and ~~that~~ my car followed but he suddenly braked and resulted in my car front left bumping into his car rear right. I was on the second lane of the road and his car was filtering into my lane. I noticed that his car was installed a camera.

During the day of accident it was raining and when the accident happened we both drivers acknowledged that the bump was just scratches to the cars' bumpers without any dent and but exchanged contact details to discuss the damages and repairs if any.

During the following discussion, we both agreed that the accident would be resolved privately a day after the accident.

Thank you.
