Without Prejudice

Dear Wai Yin,

We refer further to our below email.

Purely for an amicable settlement on a without prejudice basis and without admission of any liability to our Insured's part, we have our principal's mandate and we proposed for a global sum of $980.00 (all in) to settle your client's claim in view that both parties had to share equal liability.

If agreeable, kindly chop and sign the attached DV and forward back to us a copy together with the other relevant documents for payment processing.

The above amount is to be made payable to TRANS-CAB AUTO SERVICES PTE LTD.

Thank you.

Note: We are on work from home arrangement. All correspondence should be made via email. Submission of claim related documents will be in softcopy. Any inconvenience caused is much regretted.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters.

Best Regards,
