Brief details:
On 24/05/2016 at about 0920hrs, I was driving my car (Mitsubishi, Black colour, bearing car registration number: EX999H) along Toh Tuck Road, it is a 2 lanes road. I was driving on the 2nd lane (left most lane). There was a traffic light, hence I stopped for it. It was drizzling a little. The taxi (Transcab, Red colour, bearing car registration: SHC59362) in front of me suddenly moved back and as a result caused a collision between both of our vehicles. At that point of time, there was a male passenger on the taxi. After the collision, the taxi driver came down and confronted me. He even scolded me in Hokkien saying that "He want me to compensate him until I die". No one was injured, no government property was damaged.
