DESCRIBE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE ACCIDENT

We had dropped my grandchild, Shyna Hiranandani to school and were driving home. At the intersection of Jalan Ishak & Lor Marzuki as we drove straight since it was our right of the road, Car B, SJP 73L drove out suddenly and banged into us ^{at 8.50am} on the right - driver's side. I could not get off from the car since I got a shock as my daughter, Deepthi Ramesh Jethwani who is 23 weeks pregnant was seated next to me and I got scared. The driver of the other car got off and so did my daughter and started discussing the accident to which the driver of car B agreed that it was his fault. They took multiple pictures and exchanged details. Throughout this time, I wasn't able to get off the car since my door was jammed. At 8.54am, my daughter told me to move the car forward since we were obstructing traffic.

The driver of Car B then helped my daughter to open the door to my side and then I could come off. I have pain on my left leg and back due to the impact of the accident and my daughter has a little pain in her stomach and back after this. The driver of Car B was willing to call an ambulance to help us but because there were no major injuries for which we needed to call one.
